

NOTES FROM P.R.E.P. MAY 2, 2018

LAST PREP CLASS TONIGHT

Tonight, May 2nd is our last PREP class for the 2017-2018 PREP year. We will begin tonight in church with our Mary crowning liturgy to honor our Blessed Mother. All students should report directly to church. We will remain in church for our recognition awards and following the awards we will go over to the school hall for refreshments. Students should sit with their catechists and they should make sure that they have received their Progress report from their catechist before leaving. Those families from Adami to Karas who are providing refreshments for the social can drop them off beginning at 6:00 PM in the school hall using the alley door near the kitchen.

SIXTH SUNDAY OF EASTER

HEARING THE WORD

John 15:9 – 10

Jesus said to his disciples: “As the Father loves me, so I also love you. Remain in my love. If you keep my commandments, you will remain in my love, just as I have kept my Father’s commandments and remain in his love.”

REFLECTING ON THE WORD

Remaining in love sounds like a wonderful thing. Why would anyone want to live any differently? So often people choose to see the bad things of this world instead of remaining steadfast in the infinite love of God. It seems a difficult task with everything going on around us, but instead of calling us to a big change or something totally other, God simply asks us to stay. Stay in the love you were created out of, stay in the infinite vastness of the good within you. Simply remain.

FOR REFLECTION

What anchors you to God’s love?

Where have you experienced God’s love today?
